

HAWAII WANTS TO BE IN DRAFT; HAS GIVEN TWICE QUOTA

Though the Territory of Hawaii has furnished more than twice her quota in the army by voluntary enlistments, and is, therefore, not required to furnish men for the national army under the present draft law, she desires a full territorial representation in the draft army.

Provost Marshal General Crowder has received a cablegram from the governor of the territory reporting that all preparations for the execution of the selective service act are complete and suggesting that November 1 be the day appointed for the drawing.

The total registration of the territory was 26,337, but only 3,000 are citizens or declarants. The governor said that the people desire that the quota of the territory be fixed in proportion to its total population.

GENERAL PERSHING.

There is no busier man in United States military uniform today than General Pershing, commander-in-chief of the American troops in France. What with directing the training of his forces for front-line trench duty, taking over the command of new arriving detachments, and getting his supply system in order, he finds plenty of work for his head and hands every hour of his long day. This photograph affords a view of the general at his headquarters' office desk. It is one of the few pictures he has had taken indoors and without his service cap on.
